5.3.2-Institution facilitates students' representation and engagement in various administrative, co-curricular and extracurricular activities (student council/students representation on various bodies as per established processes and norms)

IIP
Facilitates students' representation and engagement in various administrative, co-curricular and extracurricular activities (student council/ student's representation on various bodies as per established processes and norms)

IIP actively encourages and supports students' participation in various administrative, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities. This commitment is evident through established processes and norms that facilitate student involvement in decision-making and collaborative initiatives. IIP created a welcoming environment that encourages students to not only participate in their education but also take leadership roles in various activities.

The institution acknowledges and celebrates the pivotal role of student leaders by featuring their involvement in various activities. Event flyers prominently showcase the participation of Student Council members, highlighting their dedication to both extracurricular and co-curricular initiatives. These coordinators play a pivotal role in organizing and executing events, showcasing their leadership skills and fostering a sense of ownership among the student body.

To enhance student involvement further, the institution has established a dynamic Student Activity Committee, comprising various clubs, each led by a president, vice president, and secretary. These student leaders shoulder distinct responsibilities within their clubs, collaboratively steering the activities and contributing to the vibrant campus life. Their dedicated efforts and shared responsibilities infuse energy and enthusiasm into the campus community. The photographs of students coordinating various events showcase the active involvement and leadership roles that our students undertake in organizing and executing activities on campus.

The institution's commitment to student representation and engagement is reflected in its structured processes, visual promotions, and the establishment of a Student Activity Committee. Through these initiatives, the institution not only acknowledges the importance of involving students in various aspects of campus life but also actively cultivates a culture where students take on leadership roles, contribute collectively, and enhance the overall vibrancy of the educational experience.

Student Involvement in NSS Activity

To achieve our vision, that states "To produce competent pharmacy professionals and value based future leaders by offering quality education that incorporates training in Holistic Work Life Management", we conduct NSS activities, Students involved in NSS activities contribute largely to the community's holistic development.

Various NSS activities are proposed by the faculty on relevant themes for the benefit of the society, Students of IIP, co-ordinate all the activities that display dedication, teamwork, and a desire to make positive changes. Their involvement in NSS activities, focus on improving their public speaking skills as they effectively communicate and engage with the community. There are some events conducted or coordinate by IIP students during NSS:

1. Awareness Campaign's

- * Organizing sessions on important social issues (education, gender equality, and health) to inform the community
- * Upgrading them about government schemes through interactive sessions

2. Community Engagements

- * Conducting interactive activities such as games, dance and question session to promote unity.

3. Ralliess

- * Distributing gifts to create a sense of togetherness and celebration

Principal
Indore Institute of Pharmacy,
INDORE (M.P.)

4. Health Camp:

Initiating rallies or door-to door campaigns to spread awareness about social causes and government schemes.

Arranging health camps that offer medical check-ups (Blood Pressure, sugar, BMI).

Consultations to promote well-being.

Students were not just participants, they took charge of organizing health camp, rallies, and awareness campaigns. In each of these occasions, students went beyond participation they exhibited leadership, empathy, and a keen sense of social responsibility, contributing significantly to the institution's ethos of holistic development
