Details of Participants:

S. No.	Name of Events	No. of Participants	Department
1	Ganesh Chaturthi celebration	170	All pharmacy department

Summary

Ganesh Chaturthi was observed on the IIP campus. The Lord Ganesh idol was fully decorated with flowers, petals, and rangoli. In the morning, the idol was taken from the boys hostel to the b-block by all of the students present, including Principal Sir, as well as the wardens and faculty members. All of them were singing, dancing, and throwing colours at each other in between. The Lord Ganesh idol was placed in the mess area along with the whole morning of evening rituals of arti and puja, as well as a cultural programme that was conducted by ladies and boys students from the respective dormitory in addition to faculty members in the late evening

The visarjan ceremony was held on the 20th with early rituals, puja, and bhagan in the presence of Principal Sir, all of the department heads, campus faculty, and staff, as well as students from both the girls' and boys' dormitory.

It is honoured as Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvati were moved by his devotion to his parents and his cunning in winning the race, and they bestowed upon him the fruit of knowledge as well as immortality. This is the reason we always ask Lord Ganesha's blessing before starting anything new.

Report on Diwali Celebration

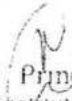

Diwali is a festival of lights & symbolizes the spiritual "victory of light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance. Diwali is the day Lord Rama, his wife Sita Devi and brother Lakshmana return to their homeland after 14 years in exile. The villagers lit a path for Rama, who had defeated the demon king Ravana. The people of Ayodhya lined the streets and their homes with oil wicks in clay lamps to welcome them. People also celebrate the Hindu Goddess Lakshmi during Diwali. As the goddess of prosperity, wealth and fertility, the romantic Diwali story says that she chose Lord Vishnu, one of Hinduism's most important deities, to be her husband on the night of Diwali.
