HR POLICY

IIP believes in 'Quality is a Way of Life' in its institutions and all its endeavors. While it continuously improves on its educational service delivery, it focuses on the quality in all other aspects of campus life and also in handling its stakeholders such as students, parents, visitors, faculty, staff, vendors and service providers. It believes that it is the human resource of any institution that makes the difference. Adequate support in providing the due welfare facilities to the employees and their families, can only bring about qualitative change in the outlook towards owning the institution and full commitment to maintain excellence in whatever they do.

Organization Structure:

It has a well-defined Organizational structure with a hierarchy from Director General to Principals and flows to HOD's, Faculties and staff members of different branches. One of the pillars of such system is the administration and the HR. The admin setup takes care of the entire campus in terms of Housekeeping, canteen management, security of the campus etc.

Service Rules:

The institute has a defined service rules right from recruitment to pay fixation, from appraisals to promotion and to talent sharpening process. The institute has proper code of conduct for everyone. Based on the JD received from different departments and approved by the Principal the recruitment process initiates through the various sources of recruitment. A detailed interview of 2-3 rounds with subject experts is scheduled after the screening of the eligible candidates. Final candidates are negotiated and provided with the offer letter. Once these candidates join they are being inducted into the system about the service rules and prevailing systems in the Institution and departmental setup.

The purpose of Service rules is to lay down the patterns of broad employee behavior expected at IIP, such as:

- Expectations related to work place discipline while interacting with superiors, colleagues, subordinates, clients and customers (students & parents etc.)

This involves socialization, acclimatization with the organization culture in the formative years of an employee's initial relationship with the company and can easily continue for a long period of time.

The educational philosophy and vision of IIP is to create an environment wherein aspiring adolescents blossom as productive technocrats as well as holistic citizen with such values conducive for the harmonious development of self and the society as well as the nation. All these are possible when they learn to harness their hidden potentials in all its facets and achieve excellence. This is an onerous task for IIP which firmly believes that the academic ambience, which is a major factor for knowledge transfer is constituted by knowledgeable and motivated faculty members and ably supported by support personnel from the facilitating departments. Thus, the human resources management in particular the faculty motivation for full-fledged commitment to excellence in academics and placement is central to HRM.

Introduction

To grow and develop for any institute, it should have a development planning system in place. Development planning is an organization's process of defining its strategy, or direction, and making decisions on allocating its resources to pursue this strategy. It may also extend to control mechanisms for guiding the implementation of the strategy.

The long term plans have been laid down in the strategic plan in consultation with Department committees, joint workshops of senior professors for strategy formulation. Indore institute of pharmacy College will sustain its excellence and distinctiveness by following a strategic plan that is built upon five sub areas namely

- Academic area
- Administrative area

PROLOGUE 2023-2028

I am delighted to share our Vision, Mission and Strategy for 2023-2028.

Our vision is to deliver excellence in all our pursuits with focus on research, best practices in teaching, exceptional education and technical knowhow, excellent faculty and ethical behavior.

I expect all of you will be inspired to join our efforts and bring this plan to fruition.

According to my belief, colleges and Universities in 2028 will be judged not by the quality of education and their technical competencies, but how students shape up as good human beings while having wider identity and perception.

Vision Document of any institute is a roadmap or a path which will take the Institute to its desired destination, keeping in view the requirements of students, faculty, society as well as our beloved country.

In continuation with our Vision 2023, IIP is now ready with the Vision, Mission and Strategic planning for 2028, for its future goal to establish as a center of academic excellence. We aim to provide forum to our students, to achieve their fullest potential in all aspects of their persona by recognizing their inherent strength. Thus, we intent to develop a professional eco-system to enhance their technical competence in their related programs.

Education can be conclusive or complete, if our education system attains twin objectives i.e., prepare the student to take care of his inner self as well as how to meet the expectations/challenges of outer world.

When we talk about inner self, it encompasses all three aspects: body mind and soul.

Education must bring tranquility, harmony, blissfulness, dutifulness towards society and nation, along with technical competence of highest order.

In other words, our endeavor is to prepare our students for better standard of living as well as better standard of life.

The objectives of the Vision Document 2028 have been aligned with National Education Policy 2020 to make our beloved mother land 'Atmanirbhar Bharat' and to reach our goal to make $5 trillion economy.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Report on the Financial Statements

1. We have audited the Financial Statements of M/s. Indore Institute of Pharmacy ("the Institute"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as on 31st March, 2023, the Statement of Income and Expenditure for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements:

2. The Institute's Management is responsible with respect to the preparation and presentation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position and financial performance in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records for safeguarding the assets of the Institute and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on financial statements based on our audit. We have taken into account the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under provisions of various Act and the Rules made there under.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified by The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

4. An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments; the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Institute's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on whether the Institute has in place an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and the operating effectiveness of such controls. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

5. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICY AND NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS

1. Accounting Assumptions

The Accounts of the institute are prepared under the historical cost convention with applicable accounting standards and relevant presentation requirements as per income tax act, 1961 using the mercantile method of accounting unless stated otherwise here in after.

2. Revenue Recognition

Fees from students are accounted on accrual basis after taking into consideration of all scholarships given in accordance with AS-9. Revenue is recognised only when it is reliably measurable and reasonably certain that the ultimate collection will be made.

Tuition Fees

Tuition fees are recognized over period of time towards the academic session of a particular semester. Any fees received in advance for next accounting year is not recognized as income for the year in which it is received, but shown as a liability in the balance sheet of the college. Such fees are recognized as income in the income and expenditure account of the next accounting year to which it relates. Similarly, fees relating to the current year, if any, due from the students at the end of the accounting year is income of that year.

One time charges

Colleges normally receive one time charge, i.e., the charges which are paid only once during the tenure of the studentship in the college. These charges are usually in the form of fees for admission to college, registration fees, etc. and are generally non refundable. Such charges are recognised as income when received.

Periodic charges

In addition to tuition fees and fees for pursuit of other curriculum activities and one-time charges, colleges also receive some other non-refundable charges from the students on periodic basis, for example, magazine/newspaper charges and other annual charges received from the students at the beginning of each academic year. Such charges are recognized as income on a time proportion basis over the relevant period.

Caution Money

At the time of admission of a student to a college, caution money is also received which is refundable to the student at the time the student leaves the college. Caution money is of the nature of deposit and, therefore is not considered as income. It is shown as a liability in the balance sheet of the college. The caution money is recognized as income only when a student waives his right to receive the caution money or it is forfeited by the college as per the rules or a student does not claim the caution money after becoming entitled to receive the same within the period during which refund can be claimed as per the policy of the college.

Revenue from such fees is recognized on time proportion basis over the period for which the fee is received. Revenue from mess charges received from the student living in the hostel is recognized on a time proportion basis over the period for which charges have been received.

Amount received from Board for payment to Exam Invigilators

College receives amounts from the Education boards for payment to the invigilators for conducting board examinations. The amount received from the board is recognized as income and the amount paid/payable to the invigilators is shown as an expense in the income and expenditure account.

3. Donations

Donation received towards Corpus fund of the institute is directly taken to balance Sheet under the head Corpus fund and general donations are credited to Income and Expenditure Account.

4. Fixed assets

5. Capital work in progress

6. Depreciation

Depreciation on fixed assets is provided on written down value (WDV) method at the rates provided in Annexure I of Fixed Assets Schedule issued by Admission and Fee Regulatory Committee framed under Madhya Pradesh NijivvyavasayikShikshanSansthanAdhiniyam 2007.

7. Apportionment of common expenses

REPORT

Name of the Event : Personality Development Program
Date of the Event : 12th August 2022
Number of students joined the lecture : 62

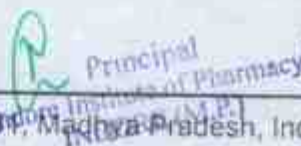

One day workshop was organized by CDC for final year students of IIP from 12th August, 2022 on 'Personality Development Program' resource person for this training program was Mr. Leonard Jude Brown.

The main objective of the Workshop was to familiarize participants with the emerging ideas and trends on how to develop personality in the 21st century contexts. The program also aimed to teach participants to work with various professionals, people and groups to understand the meaning of life and work in the present context; to enhance their communication skills and interpersonal skills in order to function in professional and social settings effectively; to enrich the academic language skills (writing and presentation skills) for academic writing and presentations; to understand effective planning, time management and implementation for setting goals and achieving both personal and professional goals; to learn to evaluate oneself (self-appraisal and introspection) for further growth, personally and professionally. Human personality influences and impacts the functioning of an individual and organizations. The fact that humans are social is determined by individual as well as collective contexts. Understanding one's own personality and nurturing it well enables one to be a fine human being and an effective professional. Humans need to learn how to cope with the problems and face the hardships while shaping our careers to become professionals and contributing citizens. University education is to enable young adults to understand the world in the liberal sense and to take forward it for the better.

REPORT

Name of the Event : How one can have the right Attitude
Date of the Event : 07th September, 2022
Number of students joined the lecture : 55

One day workshop was organized by CDC for final year students of IIP from 07th September 2022 on 'How one can have the right Attitude' resource person for this training program was Ms. Jaya Singh.

The main objective of the Workshop was to having a positive attitude can help you form important professional connections and succeed in your career. You can overcome professional obstacles more easily, and you may feel more motivated to set and reach goals. Exuding positivity can also enhance your reputation within your industry.

9 ways to have and keep a positive Attitude

1. Practice gratitude

Start changing your mind-set by writing a gratitude journal, which is a notebook where you keep track of all the good things in your life. At the end of every day, write down five things you're thankful for that day so you can focus on the good in your life.

2. Try to do more each day

One of the main aspects of a positive attitude believes in yourself and your capabilities. If you want to keep a positive attitude, try to test your limits every day. Do more work today than you did yesterday, and do more work tomorrow than you did today. If you force yourself past your limits each day, it can demonstrate that you're a capable, skilled person, which can make it easier for you to stay positive.

3. Describe yourself with positive words

Changing the language you use when you talk about yourself can be a simple solution for keeping a positive attitude. For example, if you describe your job as fun, you may look forward to starting work each day. Use positive language whenever you can. Eventually, the language you use can become part of your mind-set, making it easier to stay positive.

4. Surround yourself with positive people

The company you surround yourself with can also have an impact on your attitude. You may imitate the people you spend the most time with, even if you're doing it unconsciously. If you want to maintain a positive attitude both at work and at home, surround yourself with positive people. Spend as much time as you can with co-workers who enjoy working and take obstacles in stride, and try to make friends who are encouraging.

5. Start meditating every day

You can learn how to stay positive in tough situations by incorporating meditation into your daily routine. Your breathing can have a big impact on your emotions. When your breaths are slow

6. Don't expect results

Avoid expecting results when you take action. You can instead work toward achievements without expecting them to occur and deep, you can remain calm and focus on positive aspects.

7. Try to make other people feel happy

Setting daily goals can be a good way to find success and develop a great attitude, particularly if one of your goals is to make someone else smile regularly. Try to do something good for someone else every day.

8. Focus on what you get to do

Changing the way you think about your obligations is one of the best ways how to have a positive attitude. Instead of saying you have an obligation, say you get to. You get to go to work. You get to run your errands. You get to wake up early and exercise. By talking about your obligations as something that you get to do instead of a requirement, you can approach these tasks with a positive mind-set.

9. Practice handling rejection

Handling rejection correctly is a skill that you can develop, and once you do, you'll have an easier time staying positive. Find ways to challenge yourself in the workplace. Ask for that promotion you've been waiting for or apply for your dream job even if you don't quite yet have the right qualifications.

REPORT

Name of the Event : Personality Development Program
Date of the Event : 10th October, 2022
Number of students joined the lecture : 62

One day workshop was organized by CDC for final year students of IIP from 10th October, 2022 on 'Personality Development Program' resource person for this training program was Mr. Leonard Jude Brown.

The main objective of the Workshop was to familiarize participants with the emerging ideas and trends on how to develop personality in the 21st century contexts. The program also aimed to teach participants to work with various professionals, people and groups to understand the meaning of life and work in the present context; to enhance their communication skills and interpersonal skills in order to function in professional and social settings effectively; to enrich the academic language skills (writing and presentation skills) for academic writing and presentations; to understand effective planning, time management and implementation for setting goals and achieving both personal and professional goals; to learn to evaluate oneself (self-appraisal and introspection) for further growth, personally and professionally. Human personality influences and impacts the functioning of an individual and organizations. The fact that humans are social is determined by individual as well as collective contexts. Understanding one's own personality and nurturing it well enables one to be a fine human being and an effective professional. Humans need to learn how to cope with the problems and face the hardships while shaping our careers to become professionals and contributing citizens. University education is to enable young adults to understand the world in the liberal sense and to take forward it for the better.

ABSTRACT

In today's world, throat infection are most common disease but people do not take it seriously. However it leads to a painful condition such as soreness of throat, cough, pharyngitis and also cancer. Oral dispersible vati are solid, unit dosage form of medicament usually in a flavored, sweetened base, that are intend to dissolve or disintegrate slowly in the mouth or pharynx. They are designed in such a way to be released quickly to yield a level of drug in the oral cavity. Oral dispersible vati is made by direct compression method & formulation was further evaluated on the basis of organoleptic characters and other pharmacopoeia parameters. From above evaluation it can be concluded that the vati presented under brand name Kanthsukh Vati can be used for treatment of initial stage of cough, throat irritation, sore throat, throat infection and other respiratory diseases.

Keywords: Cough, Throat Infection, Kanthsukh Vati.

INTRODUCTION

Coughing occurs as a defensive reflex due to stimulation or reflex arc. Coughing causes clearance of secretion and particle as a reflex action. It is a protective action against foreign particles and certain pathogens. It is also important to clear secretions associated with inflammation and infection. Though cough has role of protection, productive cough causes trouble and harm to mucosal layer of airways. Initiation of coughing happens due to irritation of cough receptor present in oropharyngeal cavity. For the early treatment of cough and bronchial complaints soft vatis are usually taken as soothing agents. Vatis are easy to administer. Due to pleasant taste these are placed in mouth for longer time and sucked the drug released over a period of time to have local effect. Vatis are solid preparations that contain one or more medicaments, usually in a flavored, sweetened base, that are intended to dissolve or disintegrate quickly in the mouth. They can be prepared by direct compression of API in vati. Development of vati was done dates back to 20th century and is still in commercial production. Most of the vatis preparations are available as over the counter medications. Vatis provides a palatable means of dosage form administration and enjoys its position in pharmaceutical market owing to its several advantages.

Compressed Vati:- Commercially, the preparation of Vatis by tablet compression is less important than hard-candy manufacturing techniques. Essentially, Vatis tablets differ from convention tablets only in their organoleptic and non disintegrating property and slower dissolution rate..

Advantages:

- It is easy to administer to both pediatric and geriatric patients.
- It has a pleasant taste and will extend the time a quality of drug remains in the oral cavity to elicit local activity.
- Keeping the drug in contact with the oral cavity for an extended period of time
- Avoid the first pass metabolism of medicine.
- Do not require water for intake.

Disadvantages:

- It could be mistakenly used as candy by children.
- Heat unstable drugs are suitable.
- Parents should be cautioned not to associate medication with candy and to keep the product out of the reach of children.

METHODOLOGY

Procurement of Plant Material:

All the raw material was procured from local market of crude herbs in Indore. Identification of plant material was done by botanist of local market and the specimens of plant material are deposited at institutional laboratory. Saccharum officinarum L is used as base for the vatis was procured from local market.

Processing of Plant Material:

The material was cleaned and thoroughly dried in oven at temperature not exceeding 60°C. All the plant material were powdered individually using simple mixer blender available in lab and sieve it through sieve no. 14 and then stored in airtight container away from light till further use.

Instruments:

For quality assessment of formulation different instruments used that is available in central instrumentation room of institute. Direct compression machine was used for the preparation of vatis present in institute.

Formulation:

Ingredients	Qty.(%)
Jaggery (Saccharum officinarum L.)	25
Turmeric (Curcuma)	15
Clove (Syzygium aromaticum)	6.25
Ajwain (Trachyspermum ammi)	6.25
Black pepper (Piper nigrum)	7.5
Ginger (Zingiber officinale)	7.5
Liquorice (Glycyrrhiza glabra)	12.5
Peppermint (Mentha)	1.25
Excepients	16.25

Kanthsukh Vati were prepared using jaggery as base. The technique used was "Dry Granulation". All powdered material were weighed (Table 1) and mixed homogeneously. Weighed quantity of jaggery was melt & Keep it for cool at low temperature, slug was formed. Slug was crushed and Powder mixture was added to it. Once mixture was thoroughly mixed was added to it with continuous stirring. The mixture was poured into hopper and vatis were formed by tablet punching machine. The prepared vati's were evaluated for different pharmacopoeia parameters and packed in packing material and label.

EVALUATION OF FORMULATION

Formulation of Vati was developed and sampled and evaluated for different parameters such as microscopically Evaluation, Uniformity of weight, Friability, Disintegration, Determination of ash Value, Swelling Index, Determination of moisture containing.

Microscopically Evaluation:-

These were determining by visual observation for physical appearance and identity. Other organoleptic characteristics such as taste, color uniformity, dimensions also were evaluated. Length and thickness of 20 vatis samples were determine using vernier caliper and observations are as in the Table: 2, for an average dimension indicating uniformity in the size of vatis.

Uniformity of Weight:-

Twenty vatis were randomly sampled and weighted individually on high precision balance. Average weight as well as %deviation for weight for the twenty vatis was determined.

Hardness Test:-

The hardness testing was done by using Monsanto hardness tester for sampled vatis and average hardness was determined and the result were indicated as kg /sq cm.

Friability:-

It is determined with a friability test apparatus of veto, Indore, India. Twenty Vatis were collected at random and weighted on a precision balance, Vatis were placed into drums of the apparatus which is then set for 100 revolution. After the test the Vatis were deducted and weighted again. The % friability was calculated using following formula

$$\% \text{friability} = \frac{\text{initial weight} - \text{final weight}}{\text{initial weight}} * 100$$

Disintegration Time:-

Disintegrating test of the prepare Vatis was performed according to monographic procedure given in USP 34, using a disintegration tester in phosphate Buffer (PH = 6.2) maintained at 37+- 0.5 degree calcius as disintegration medium. Six Vatis were placed in the cylindrical disappearance of Vatis or its particles from the tester net were recorded as disintegration time.

Determination of Ash Values:-

The total ash method is designed to measure the total amount of material remaining after ignition. This includes both "physiological ash" which is derived from the plant tissue itself, and "non-physiological" ash, which is the residue of the extraneous matter (e.g. sand and soil) adhering to the plant surface.

Determination of Moisture Content:-

This test is used to determine the water content of a material by drying a sample to constant mass at a specified temperature. To determine the moisture content of the formulation the weighted amount of formulation were processed in hot air oven at 120 degrees centigrade till constant weight obtained and the percent moisture content was calculated.

RESULT AND DISCUSSION

The prepared cough Vatis "kanthsuk vati" was a polyherbal cough relieving formulation containing Jaggery (Saccharum officinarum L.), Turmeric (Curcuma), Clove (Syzygium aromaticum), Ajwain (Trachyspermum ammi), Black pepper (Piper nigrum), Ginger (Zingiber officinale), Liquorice (Glycyrrhiza glabra), Peppermint (Mentha). All of these components are well known for their pharmacological action such as :-

Jaggery (Saccharum officinarum L.):-

Jaggery is the best immune-boosting food. It is loaded with vitamins, minerals, and antioxidant. It detoxifies the body by cleansing the lungs. It treats cough and cold & reduces irritation. It also heaving anti-allergic properties.

Turmeric (Curcuma):-

Turmeric contains the highest concentration of curcumin of any plant species. It has ability to boost the absorption, and best for cure cough & cold and relive irritation. It helps to promote immune activity around joints and muscle.

Clove (Syzygium aromaticum):-

Clove oil acts as an expectorant for treating respiratory disorders, including colds, bronchitis, and cough, asthma, and upper- respiratory conditions. It help in the case of chronic coughs and is mentioned to be specifically useful in the case of shortness of breath:-

Ajwain (Trachyspermum ammi):-

Thymol in ajwain is packed with anti-inflammatory, anti-bacterial and anti-fungal properties that help in providing instant relief from cold, fever, and flue. It helps in clearing nasal blockage by discharging the mucus. It also treats oral problems, maintains cholesterol levels, relief from arthritis, and relieves acidity and other medicinal properties.

Black pepper (Piper nigrum):-

Black pepper has expectorant and suppressant properties that help to reduce symptoms associated with cough and cold. It is replete with antibacterial and anti-inflammatory properties, which help keep infections at bay and also provide relief from the discomfort. It is also enriched with vitamin-C, which naturally boosts the immunity and work as an excellent antibiotic.

Ginger (Zingiber officinale):-

Ginger powder (sonth) is enriched with anti-inflammatory properties that help to treat cough and cold and improve digestion. In fact, it is treated as expectorant natural medicine to prevent common cold. Moreover, the antibacterial properties in it also help in prevent infections in the body.

Liquorice (Glycyrrhiza glabra):-

Liquorice is also known as mulethi that contains glycyrrhizin and heaving sweetening taste, it is a primary active ingredient. It decreases swelling, decrease cough and act as an expectorant. It also increases the chemicals in our body that heals ulcer and gives smoothening effect..

Peppermint (Mentha):-

Peppermint is used as natural decongestant and fever-reducer. It contains menthol, and ingredient found in topical rubs that helps relief congestion. Menthol is also used in many cough drops to help soothe sore throats and quite cough. It helps in relieve pain, prevent or reduce vomiting, eliminate mucous and boost blood circulation.

Organoleptic parameter:-

The vati were found to be round shape with smooth texture. The round shape was due to dyes used for preparation. The taste of vati was determined using human volunteer panel of 3 people and was sweet, spicy and refreshing in taste. The sweet taste could be attributed to the use of jaggary as base and masking agent and spicy & refreshing due to other ingredients. The odour of prepared vatis was aromatic and agreeable and can be attributed to the presence of clove. The colour of vati was greenish-brown due to base ingredient jaggary and crude drugs which were dark coloured.

Uniformity of weight:-

Average weight for twenty vati was found to be 0.255 gm. The no. of Vatis deviating from the average weight were within limit of 5% specified in the monograph. The uniformity in weight can be correlated with uniformity in dosing.

Hardness :-

The hardness determination is one of the required parameters in quality assessment for vati. The transport and handling may cause chipping of the Vatis. Hence to determine the ability of the formulation to prevent fracturing, hardness testing was performed using Pfizer Hardness Tester. The average hardness of twenty vatis was found to be 3-3.5 Kg/cm².

Friability:-

The additional test to confirm the impact resistance of the formulation, friability testing was performed on the twenty vatis. The percent loss in weight estimated was found to be 0% which indicates that the formulation passes the test as the limits specified in the pharmacopoeia indicates that the value should be not more than 1.0%.

Determination of Moisture Content:-

This test is used to determine the water content of a material by drying a sample to constant mass at a specified temperature. To determine the moisture content of the formulation the weighted amount of formulation were processed in hot air oven at 120 degrees centigrade till constant weight obtained and the percent moisture content was

Disintegration Time:-

Ideally this test is not official for the formulation expected to be dissolved slowly in the mouth and hence the limits are not specific. Still the test was performed to find whether the vatis dissolves in mouth and in howmuch time it take to dissolve completely so that the faster and localized onset of action can be observed. The test was performed as per the procedure given in the monograph for the uncoated tablets. The medium used was phosphate buffer pH 6.2 to stimulate the pH of oral fluid. Sampled six vatis revealed average disintegration time of 0.66 min. +- 0.5 min.

CONCLUSION

From the above discussion we can conclude that the vati's can be prepared by using household ingredients such as Saccharum officinarum L., Curcuma, Syzygium aromaticum, Piper nigrum, Glycyrrhiza glabra), etc and jaggery as a base very easily it can be prepared and consume. It can be used to treat minor throat infection at intial stage of infection.

Corona virus is a respiratory virus which causes infectious Covid-19 disease and globally the virus continues to pose major risks of mortality. Rapid research is in progress to identify prolific drugs and vaccine for Covid-19 however, it is a time consuming process. Social distancing and Sanitizers are helpful in combating viruses and safeguarding the human health. Hand sanitizers are prolific when hands washing with soaps are not possible. Sanitizers are effective antibacterial agents and classified into two types as alcohol based and alcohol free. Among which alcohol-based sanitizers are prospective in persuading the public needs.

- Objective of the Project

The COVID-19 pandemic has called for the increased use of hand sanitizers worldwide in public facilities, transportation, hospitals, nursing homes, and even common households to mitigate the virus burden. Active ingredients such as ethyl alcohol used to manufacture sanitizers are recommended for use against COVID-19 viruses by The United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA) which claims to be effective against the SARS CoV-2 virus.

- Scope of the Project

The global hand sanitizer market size was valued at USD 6.02 billion in 2021 and is expected to expand at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 6.8% from 2022 to 2030. Rising global awareness regarding sanitation and personal hygiene is expected to drive the demand for hand sanitizer as it is an antiseptic solution, which is used as an alternative to soap and water. Moreover, it helps in preventing some of the most infectious diseases, including COVID-19, influenza etc.

- Ingredients Required

INDORE (M.P.)

Carbopol	1%
Citronella Oil	3%

• Working Methodology

1. A beaker was filled with the required amount of freshly prepared deionized water. Distillation equipment was used to perform deionization.
2. To prevent the volatile alcohol from evaporating, a petri plate was placed on a beaker containing the necessary amount of 70% isopropyl alcohol.
3. Neem powder that was used in the requisite quantity was macerated in alcohol to create a neem extract.
4. Fresh gel from the aloe leaves was scraped out to create an aloe vera extract. To release the yellow toxin produced by the leaves, the leaves were submerged in a beaker of water. The gel was then combined in a mixer to create the desired consistency of gel.
5. Enough glycerol was taken using a pipette.
6. The needed amount of citronella oil was added.
After combining the ingredients in a beaker, the mixture was transferred to an Erlenmeyer flask.
7. To increase the solution's viscosity, Carbopol 934, a synthetic thickening agent, was added to the flask. To improve solubility, the solution was sonicated in an ultrasonicator.
8. The sanitizer was successfully prepared.
9. Proper labelling was done, and the sanitizer was packed in a suitable container.

• Evaluation Parameters

1. pH:

When the prepared product's PH was tested, the formed product's PH was discovered to be 5.5, which is an ideal result.

Introduction:-

- ❖ Grain protection gained economic importance from various insect-pest infestations during storage. Integrated pest management is one of the widely adopted pests control strategies that involves various contact and residual insecticides in addition to the fumigants.
- ❖ Today's major concerns are residue problem and health risks to the consumers that forced synthetic pyrethroids either banned or restricted use.
- ❖ To the most of currently available fumigants and synthetic chemicals pests have developed resistance.
- ❖ Such constraints paved a way to use need based plant derived products as alternatives to current chemical pesticides.
- ❖ Plant-derived products to possess great insecticidal potential. Moreover, the biosafety studies of various plant based insecticides should be carried out to ascertain their toxic effects on human, animals and agricultural crops.
- ❖ This includes various aspects like storage losses by insect pests, side effects of pesticides as grain protectants as well as their harmful effects on human health which are fatal.
- ❖ Plant products as alternative to synthetic compounds, classification of plant based compounds, powder and oil formulations as grain protectants are very much useful and have great impact on protection to the stored grains and prevent storage losses.

FOREWORD

Dear Team Members,

Academic excellence is sine-qua-non of any institution of higher education which is striving for excellence. We understand that academic excellence isn't mere enhancing technical competence and deploying qualified faculty. It is also about creating suitable academic environment which is conducive for all round growth. Attracting best of faculty, compensate them adequately for their growth, enable them to live with dignity and putting in place such systems that enable an employee to perform to his full potential is central to maintain excellence in learning and proliferation of knowledge. Considering this need, we have created this Service Manual on Human Resource Management & Development for institutions of Shail Educational & Welfare Society (SEWS).

I expect each and every member of my team to study, absorb, and internalize the values, ethos and systems and strive to follow them as outlined in this manual.

Arun S Bhatnagar
Director General

Institutional Excellence and Systems

Shail Educational and Welfare Society (SEWS) was incorporated in the year 2002 with a vision to setup professional institutions and groom the younger generation to become world-class technocrats and managers. It firmly believes that there are primarily two factors that need be addressed on the path to excellence which are:

- i) Deployment of motivated faculty and maintaining academic and professional tenor
- ii) Supporting the faculty and students with state-of-the-art infrastructure to result effective knowledge transfer (teaching-learning) and research as well as holistic development of the students and its employees.

In this pursuit, SEWS has evolved various academic-administrative systems including effective human resource management processes. Keeping this in view, this Service Manual is formulated to address the issues of effective facilitation and motivation of faculty and support staff.

This Employee Service Manual comprise of Working Rules & Code of Conduct (more specifically outlining the service conditions & expectations from employees of SEWS) in addition to highlighting the ethos and value system of SWES in its pursuit of serving the Indian Society

This service manual is intended to serve as a ready-reckoner to an employee by providing an overview of human resource management processes and the conditions of employment intertwined with considerable human-orientation and humane-working conditions.

It is hoped that this service manual would generate good understanding between employees and management resulting into stronger bonding and teamwork.
